

Kathi Crow

COACH & CONSULTANT

"Kathi is an amazing executive coach. She quickly discerned the areas she could help me with to navigate real change that in turn continues to give me more confidence day-to-day, more enjoyment in work, and the roadmap to work smarter! She asks the perfect questions to make you think and look at things differently. I am more excited about my business/career than I have been in many years, and have a plan for the next 10 that I would never have had without Kathi's coaching."

Kathi Crow is a creative, highly innovative professional coach who brings a positive spirit and more than 30 years of business experience to serve as a leadership coach and trusted advisor to senior executives and entrepreneurs. In her work, she provides one-on-one coaching, team coaching, executive peer group facilitation, and delivers experiential webinars on leadership development topics, including Conscious Capitalism and Conscious Leadership.

As a coach, Kathi partners with senior executives and entrepreneurs to cultivate the skill set and mindset necessary to successfully lead teams and deliver strategic impact, while becoming valuable, positive and fulfilled leaders. Kathi leverages her extensive business experience to understand the demands her executive clients face in today's business environment, and assists them in finding ways to work through challenges while balancing the stress in their lives. The journey is as significant as the destination.

Prior to her work as a coach, Kathi was a Managing Director with The McLean Group, an investment bank to middle market firms, where she advised business owners on the sale of their companies. As an experienced M&A professional, Kathi has provided transaction advice, exit planning, consulting and executive coaching to business owners and their teams. Prior to her investment banking career, Kathi worked in the telecommunications industry in various consulting, engineering and sales management positions.
